Course: Art of project management & PMP exam preparation

The course that was held in March 2010 was attended by thirteen participants from different departments and divisions where the interaction and reaction were excellent.

Based on the great success and the excellent assessment of the first course, the Training department decided to conduct a second course in May 2010.

This course was attended by twelve participants from different departments and divisions where the course was marked by the same success that characterized the previous course.

The Public Institution for Social Security in Kuwait has henceforth become a strategic client and an important supporter to Change.
