

Success Story Mr. Rayed Al Humaid

Congratulations to Mr. Raed Hamid on the PMP Certificate and PMI's accreditation as "Project Manager Professional"!

Mr. Raed Speaking about his experience with the largest companies and the biggest names of well-known trainers, he said: "I am failure in passing the PMP exam three consecutive times" and, "I've become desperate to repeat the process of failure, but the grace of God and the continuous support and observations from Mr. Eyad who support me once again, I decided to pass the PMP exam for the last time and actually I passed this time, but successfully.

Mr. Humaid added:" during the phase for the exam preparation there was a great role from Mr. Eyad and his attention and follow-up of the event and warned of the decline or inaction because failure is not always the end all the way.

The achievement of Mr. Humaid success story is a lesson to all students who believe that the failure is the end of the road, through determination to go on in the pursuit of obtaining the accreditation certificate; Mr. Humaid sets an example for those who wish to seek and obtain prominence.

Once again, I congratulate Mr. Humaid and hope that his success will motivate many students to prepare themselves in utmost seriousness to the PMP exam.
